

JANUARY 23, 1829.

Read twice, and committed to a Committee of the Whole House to-morrow.

Mr. EVERETT, from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, to which was referred the case of Samuel Sitgreaves, reported the following bill:

A BILL

For the settlement of the accounts of Samuel Sitgreaves.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That
3 the proper accounting officers of the Treasury be, and they
4 hereby are, authorized and directed to pass to the credit of 5 the late Samuel Sitgreaves the sum of ten thousand four 6 hundred and forty-five dollars and fifty-six cents, with which
7 sum he now stands charged on the books of the Treasury.

1 SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary
2 of the Treasury be, and he hereby is, authorized and directed
3 to pay to the executors of the late Samuel Sitgreaves the 4 amount of his salary from April the first to June the tenth,
5 one thousand eight hundred and one, at the rate of four thou-
6 sand four hundred and forty dollars per annum, out of any
7 money in the Treasury, not otherwise appropriated.
